"FLAT AS A FLOUNDER"

Something of the Strange Life-story of an Interesting and Curious Fish.

The expression "as flat as a flounder" has become proverbial, but does not apply to very young punders, which differ so much from the adult ones that they can hardly be recognized as belonging to the same family as their parents. Most boys and girls are familiar with full-grown founders, but very few of them, and few older people, know anything about the appearance of young founders and the wonderful transformations they undergo. In the spring and summer it is possible for young nature students to secure specimens of newly hatched founders by dragging a fine mesh net on sunny days when the water is smooth. Such specimens may easily be kept alive in a solution of salt water and examined from time to time with a low-powered microscope.

The founders begin life as so-called embryo fishes. When they first emerge from the egg they swim vertically with the head upward. Their bodies are symmetrical, and their eyes are on opposite sides of the head: Gradually the position of the body changes from vertical to horizontal, and the fish remains there some time. This is an extraordinary fishes; but while still very small there is foreshadowing of the bottom life they are destined for, and they enter upon a series of remarkable changes. The most striking of these changes is in the position of the eye. At first the eye is on the side, and then slowly but steadily moves over to the opposite side of the head and takes place beside the other eye. In some instances the eye moves around the front of the head; in others it moves directly through the snout. This shifting of the eye's position is accompanied by a change in the position of the body, which ceases to be upright and becomes more and more side of the eye and the body from the eye. The eye is usually laterally compressed and the body is usually coniform to the other, until by a time the change of the eye is complete the fish swims with its blind side underneath, and this position is never altered. The flounder swims on its side, its swimming habit is to sink to the bottom.

Some species of flounders are right-sided and others are left-sided. In a right-sided forms the left eye moves to the right side, and the left eye is underneath. In the left-sided species the right eye moves to the left side. It rarely happens that right-sided species have left-sided individuals, and vice versa. In a few species both right-sided and left-sided occur in about equal numbers.

Some educational investigators in Berlin have been inquiring among the poor children to see how much they rely on their way to school. To their surprise and disgust, they found that the children of one of the representative schools did not know the names of the trees in the park that at them passed through on their way to and from school, and still another large percentage did not know the name of the river that flows through Berlin.

What do you know about the objects that you pass every day on your way to and from school? Could you name the transfer car once to the first stop? Show him the trees in the park that cut out some fine bit of architecture. Show him where he might find something else odd or unusual or interesting.

There is hardly a route that one

By Herman Knickerbocker

ESPECIALLY CONTRIBUTED TO THE
Fifteen minutes after Mr. Livermore, accompanied by his daughter, Selma, had driven from their comfortable West End residence, for the purpose of attending an annual family gathering at the home of Mrs. Livermore's widow, Mr. Pease, on the opposite side of Central Park, the Livermore family were stirred by a more than imperative ring at the front door. It was Christmas Eve, a stormy night, and the delivery of a mercantile delivery wagon was at any hour. Presents, a large van backed up the driveway, and the family, already in the house, were inquired of by the butler, who condescended to open the door to the family, from the street.

"It looks to me something," replied the smiling butler, who generally knew by the ring of the door, and the delivery man, "and the delivery man wants to know where to put the presents." "What are they bringing?" inquired Bates, the butler, who condescended to open the door to the family, from the street.

"The sofa, is it?" exclaimed the butler, coming forward. "I'd like who has been silly enough to present of a sofa to a family already more than crowded with pieces of furniture, just then the sofa was in point of being sent in a porcelain box." "Here, you fellows, wait and put it in the parlor," said the butler, who condescended to open the door to the family, from the street.

"Lord!" said the housemaid as she regarded the latest acquisition, "but it is a beast!" "Set the room off down," marked the fastest and most of the furniture men, as suited a memorandum in the house. "Come in handy, won't it," missus wants to snatch a nap after noon."

The butler and the housemaid changed a glance of tolerant such benighted ignorance of the world beyond enlightenment. "Best give it a good brush out the colors," the admonished, surveying his admirably.

"I wouldn't touch it with the declared the housemaid, and prophesied, "It won't stop long, but it is a beast!" "Set the room off down," marked the fastest and most of the furniture men, as suited a memorandum in the house. "Come in handy, won't it," missus wants to snatch a nap after noon."

"Our dinner will be getting observed the butler. "Go do Anne, and tell the cook I'm and I'll bring down the sherry." "That Sherry," hardly fit to a stairs again."

The housemaid sniffed. "Be careful, Mr. Bates," he admonished him. "The old butler, was discharged because he had many bottles of champagne serve upstairs."

"Auguste," rejoined the butler, a French duffer. He ought to know that even broad-minded men always count champagne. "Shall we leave the lights burning in the parlor?" asked the maid.

Lovekins and Muffaroo see an enormous elephant rolling on his back in the grass. They manage to steal away quietly before he sees them. That is narrow escape number one.

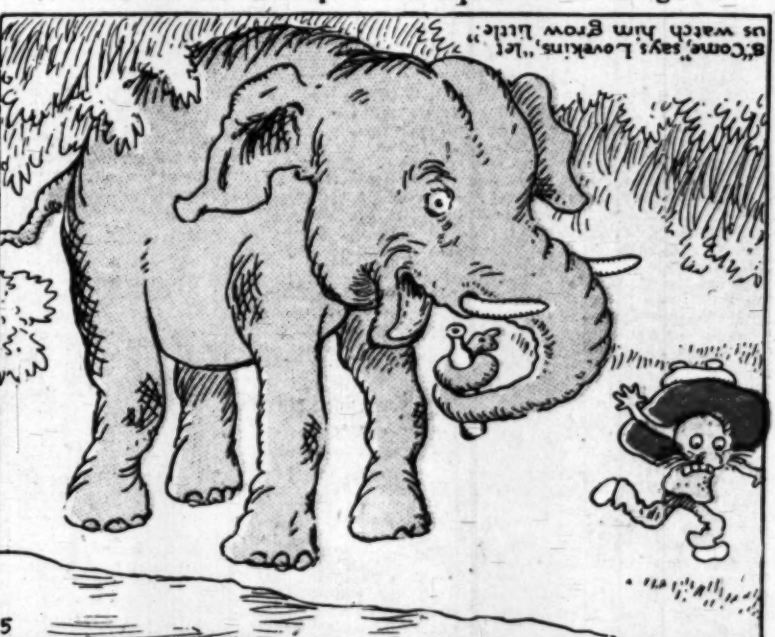

Later on Lovekins picks up a curious bottle containing some strange liquid. "Don't drink it," says Old Man Muffaroo, but Lovekins touches a drop of the liquid to her tongue.

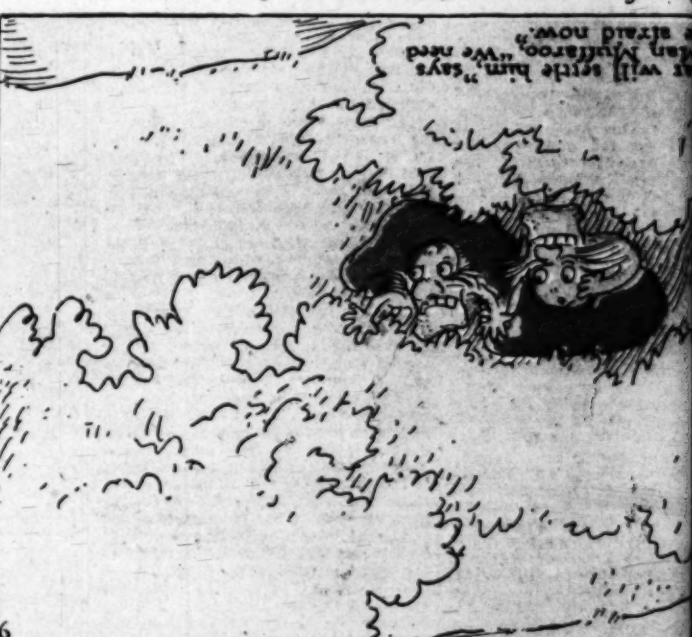

Instantly she feels herself growing smaller, but by vomiting she saves herself from losing more than one. That is narrow escape number two, and Muffaroo just.

Now this he should not have done, for the quick-eared elephant hears him and comes galloping up to see what is going on behind the trees. They are discovered! What is to be done?

Quick as a flash Muffaroo hands the bottle to the elephant. The big fellow innocently sips the contents. He seems to like the stuff.

THIS is our Twenty-third Annual Autumn Opening. In all this long time each of these openings has been better than its predecessor until the magnitude of display in the past several seasons has been such that it would seem impossible to better our previous work, but with the tireless energy of this great firm we have gone ahead and can absolutely promise the public this season the greatest Autumn Opening Display of the finest lines of merchandise shown at any store west of Chicago. We have representatives in every market of the world, maintaining resident buyers in Paris, Berlin, London, Yokohama and New York. The combined efforts, after months of research and careful selection, has resulted in such an elaborate showing of new wearables that words can not adequately express their beauty or do justice to their worth. It means a personal inspection to fully appreciate this magnificent showing and as every woman is interested in fine merchandise, we are satisfied that you will accept this as an open invitation to visit the great Hamburger store this week, for you will learn more of fashions than you could by any possibility from any other source whether fashion magazines or printed descriptions in all of the women's journals published. We specially ask the consideration of women who appreciate exceptionally fine merchandise exclusive in style and naturally selling at high though not exorbitant prices when the real worth is considered. We shall not attempt to quote many special prices in this ad but make it a general conversational dissertation on everything that a woman needs and admires in the way of wearables. As to the store and window decorations they are simply superb. Everything is in autumn colorings that rival Nature's handiwork—for hundreds of thousands of multi-colored maple leaves are everywhere; and hundreds of palms, ferns and festoons of smilax give ensemble to the whole. The entire store presents a sylvan setting for the handsome wearables and other merchandise so lavishly displayed.

Autumn Opening of Women's Wearables

Every woman likes to dress as well as the limits of her pocketbook will afford. Style enters into everything and the highest prices are because of quality and elaborateness of garment; for style abounds in the past several months in getting an assortment of fine wearables for our Autumn Opening that by far overabundantly any similar attempt ever made in Los Angeles. It is only natural that for the Opening Display we should take almost exclusively of the finest goods, and in this connection we will mention that the most important and included in our autumn stock of every new and desirable article in the latest styles from Paris, London, New York, and other fashion centers. They are the work of the very best makers, such as Chantilly, Mme. Piquoy, Jellinek, and others. These garments are in the newest of fabrics, are all in the newest styles and are elaborately garnished. The materials consist of Chiffons, Velvets, Peau de Cygne, Clifton Taffetas, Crepe de Chine, Malines and Broad. One hundred costumes of the very best makes will be on display this week at $35.00, $45.00, $50.00, $55.00, $60.00, $65.00, $70.00, $75.00, $80.00, $85.00, $90.00, $95.00, $100.00, $105.00, $110.00, $115.00, $120.00, $125.00, $130.00, $135.00, $140.00, $145.00, $150.00, $155.00, $160.00, $165.00, $170.00, $175.00, $180.00, $185.00, $190.00, $195.00, $200.00, $205.00, $210.00, $215.00, $220.00, $225.00, $230.00, $235.00, $240.00, $245.00, $250.00, $255.00, $260.00, $265.00, $270.00, $275.00, $280.00, $285.00, $290.00, $295.00, $300.00, $305.00, $310.00, $315.00, $320.00, $325.00, $330.00, $335.00, $340.00, $345.00, $350.00, $355.00, $360.00, $365.00, $370.00, $375.00, $380.00, $385.00, $390.00, $395.00, $400.00, $405.00, $410.00, $415.00, $420.00, $425.00, $430.00, $435.00, $440.00, $445.00, $450.00, $455.00, $460.00, $465.00, $470.00, $475.00, $480.00, $485.00, $490.00, $495.00, $500.00, $505.00, $510.00, $515.00, $520.00, $525.00, $530.00, $535.00, $540.00, $545.00, $550.00, $555.00, $560.00, $565.00, $570.00, $575.00, $580.00, $585.00, $590.00, $595.00, $600.00, $605.00, $610.00, $615.00, $620.00, $625.00, $630.00, $635.00, $640.00, $645.00, $650.00, $655.00, $660.00, $665.00, $670.00, $675.00, $680.00, $685.00, $690.00, $695.00, $700.00, $705.00, $710.00, $715.00, $720.00, $725.00, $730.00, $735.00, $740.00, $745.00, $750.00, $755.00, $760.00, $765.00, $770.00, $775.00, $780.00, $785.00, $790.00, $795.00, $800.00, $805.00, $810.00, $815.00, $820.00, $825.00, $830.00, $835.00, $840.00, $845.00, $850.00, $855.00, $860.00, $865.00, $870.00, $875.00, $880.00, $885.00, $890.00, $895.00, $900.00, $905.00, $910.00, $915.00, $920.00, $925.00, $930.00, $935.00, $940.00, $945.00, $950.00, $955.00, $960.00, $965.00, $970.00, $975.00, $980.00, $985.00, $990.00, $995.00, $1000.00.

Autumn Opening of Fine Millinery

The reputation that our millinery department has achieved in the past few years throughout Southern California for all that is good, new and stylish—whether exclusive models from the world's renowned French milliners, the most famous milliners of Paris, or our own workroom, has given a decided truthfulness to every claim we make for superiority in the local millinery field. There is a distinct richness about these colors the copper shades, two of which are "olignon brule" and "couleur de cuivre." There is a distinct richness about these dull shades for those who do not favor the particularly bright colors. The soft reseda and Empire greens in bruno effects with a touch of gold will be particularly noticeable in the fine millinery and the size and shape of hats are in keeping with the latest fashions. The long sweeping ostrich plumes, buckskin plumes and feathers are all in the latest styles. Our showing of French pattern hats which were selected personally by Mr. S. A. Hamburger in Paris, are typical exponents of their respective classes, a few of which we describe herewith:

From L. Reverdy, Paris—a champagne colored hat of shirred Chiffon, trimmed with large velvet roses and foliage; also a misse's hat of red velvet, trimmed with large ribbon roses and aigrette.

From M. Gervais, Paris—a black dress hat of Chantilly lace and Chenille cord; trimmed with velvet ribbon and long ostrich plumes.

MILKING TIME.

I calculate thar ain't a time in al
the hull day through,
Like milkin' time that comes aroun
erbout the fall of dew.

Haw thar, Nell! Don't start to kick,
That didn't hurt, I know;
Say Bill, milk Lucy Lee, an' quick!
Don't be so gosh-blamed slow.
Drive Bossy in the open cut,
Be keuffer thar, I say!
I sawn! that yarlin' calf will butt
The whole blamed fence away!

Whew! but thar's work at milkin'

time;
That ain't no play for me;
Jest 'n' I have a span of prime
I hope a fly or flea.
The pigs are pokin' in each pan,
They never mind a whack.

Each time I turn my back.

I calculate that ain't a time in all

Like milkin' time that comes around

Among the sundry other things

Child nature is a subject which is lately

The cunning adult mind
In the babe delights to find Such psychologic mysteries beneath the

(It almost makes the reader smile—
This research so void of guile.)

We get the utterances of the babe hot off the bat,
For the writer recalls just how when younger he said that;
And so, magnanimous,
He reveals off for us
A true delineation of the funny little

(In which the prattling babe affects Numerous hand-made dialects.)

We get Real Diaries of boys who'd

To hear that "man is but a child.")

"JOHNNY-ON-THE-SPOT."

The world has many golden gifts
It would be hard to begin
On enterprising mortals who are not Too shy or slow
To step right up and win their share of

But, oh! the world's too busy, quite, to

And those who would be so do much

PRESIDENT FOR PEACE.

To Ask for Second Congress at the Hague.

Reception to the Interparliamentary Union.

New Plans for Coast Defense. Imperial Lauds.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—The President announced this afternoon that at an early date he would ask the nations of the world to join in a second congress at The Hague for the promoting of arbitration.

The occasion for the announcement was the reception by the President of the delegates to the Interparliamentary Union, which recently held a session at St. Louis. At that session the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, enlightened public opinion and the spirit of modern civilization alike demand that controversies between nations be settled in the same manner as disputes between individuals are settled, that is by the judgment of courts in accordance with recognized principles of law; therefore,

"This congress requests that the several governments send delegates to an international conference to be convened at a time and place to be agreed on by them for the consideration of the following questions:

"(1) Questions for the consideration of which the conference at The Hague expressed the wish that a future conference be called.

"(2) The negotiation of arbitration treaties between the nations represented at the conference to be convened.

"(3) The advisability of creating a congress of nations to convene periodically for the discussion of international questions.

"And respectfully and cordially requests the President of the United States to invite all the nations to send representatives to such conference."

The President's acceptance of the terms of the resolution was enthusiastically applauded.

RECEPTION AT WHITE HOUSE.

At 2 p.m. about 150 delegates to the Interparliamentary Union, accompanied by perhaps a score of industry, headed by Representative Bartholdi of St. Louis, president of the union, marched as a body to the White House.

They assembled in the east room in a semicircle, facing the entrance from the main corridor. Ten minutes later the President, accompanied by his wife, Mrs. Woodhull, Col. Charles S. Brown, his military aide, Maj. Charles McCarty and two or three military and naval attaches, was ushered into the presence of the distinguished assembly of legislators and parliamentarians.

Representative Bartholdi introduced the assembly to the President and stated in brief the object of their meeting.

Mr. Bartholdi then introduced to the President Dr. Albert Gobat of Switzerland, general secretary of the Interparliamentary Union, who presented formally to the President the resolution of the union requesting him to call a second conference. Dr. Gobat addressed the President in French, with which the President is familiar.

TO STRENGTHEN COAST DEFENSE.

WAR DEPARTMENT'S PLAN FOR PROFICIENCY ON PACIFIC.

Scheme for Utilizing State Troops One that Will Readily Appeal to California Militiamen, it is Believed. Instruction at Artillery Posts Feature of Efficiency Programme.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Among the letters sent by the War Department to Governors of States regarding strengthening regular coast defense artillery by giving training to State troops, was one letter addressed to Gov. Pardee of California. Letters were also sent to the Governors of Washington and Oregon. It is the desire of the War Department to strengthen the coast defense artillery on the Pacific Coast particularly and to bring the State troops of the three Pacific Coast States up to a high point of efficiency in the service. The scheme of utilizing State troops in coast-defense work is outlined in plans that have been made already for New York State troops, as follows:

"Each company of organized militia would be assigned to a battery to which one company of artillery is designated. In time of peace, the assignment to be for drill and instruction; in time of war, as a part of the regular garrisons and under command of artillery post commanders.

"That each artillery post commander to whose post an assignment is made shall arrange with the commanding officers of organizations so assigned, through the colonel of the regiment, a system of instruction for the same by the attendance of officers at post schools and by the attendance at the post of the reserve during the annual target practice.

"It is unnecessary to go into details in outlining the instruction that should be given. It will develop and extend as men and officers become more and more proficient in their duties. When assignment has been made, and officers and men appreciate that they will always be welcome as individuals at their assigned posts to witness drill and gain information, it is believed many will take advantage of this and spend their spare time in perfecting themselves in artillery matters—particularly men studying for gunners' examination and officers ambitious to master their artillery duties—and will not confine themselves strictly to times when their companies are ordered to posts for instruction."

THE PRESIDENT'S BUSY DAY.

SUCCESSOR TO WADE.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—This was a busy day for the President. Acting Secretary of State Loomis talked about the appointment of a successor to Robert M. McWade, United States Consul-General at Canton, China. It is expected the appointment will be announced shortly.

It is likely that Vice-Congress D. A. Silva, against whom charges have been preferred, also will be relieved from duty in the consular service. He was McWade's assistant at Canton.

FRIARS FIXED OUT.

MAY GET MONEY IN LONDON.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Arrangements have been made whereby the Augustinian friars in the Philippines can secure the money in payment for their lands in London, as they desire, instead of Manila. To this end the Insular Bureau of the War Department has decided that the entire transaction shall be conducted through the Guarantee Trust Company of New York and London, and recourse will not be had to the Bank of England, as originally contemplated.

The Philippine government has been instructed to draw four warrants covering the whole of the money involved in this payment, hand them to the friars' representative, who may cash them in London at their pleasure upon presentation to the Guarantee Trust Company there.

MOROS PRETTY QUIET.

FIGHTS FEW AND FAR BETWEEN.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Careful examination of the official reports made to the War Department by the commanding general, Division of the Philippines covering a period from last February down to the middle of August, failed to disclose any account of an engagement of importance between the American troops and the Moros, with the single exception of an affair that occurred on the island of Cagayan about six weeks ago. Inference was made from the fact in press reports at the time, this engagement, in which twenty-six Moros were killed, had the effect of establishing peace on Cagayan Island and the recognition of civil government.

It is reported that a force of soldiers is continually on the lookout for and in pursuit of Datto Ali. This Moro chieftain is held to have been guilty of gross treachery, involving the murder of American soldiers in violation of all rules of war.

COMMISSIONER GARFIELD'S VIEW.

INSURANCE NO COMMERCIAL.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The President will soon have before him a mass of interesting reports covering the general subject of operations of sundry trusts and the control the government may exercise over them. The Commissioner of Corporations, Garfield, is finishing up three separate reports on trusts, all of which he hopes to be able to turn over to the President before the latter goes to work on his message to Congress.

Probably the most important inquiry the Bureau of Corporations is making and one about which the least is known is the investigation of great insurance companies of the country, with a view to ascertaining the legality and feasibility of the government attempt to regulate their business.

This inquiry was imposed upon the Commissioner of Corporations by an act which established the Department of Commerce and Labor, and for a year Mr. Garfield has been familiarizing himself with the history of State and Federal laws relating to the business of insurance corporations. He has had to determine whether or not the operations of these companies could properly be called interstate commerce, and as such, subject to Federal regulation and control. After studying the history of litigation on this subject and reading all opinions touching thereon, Commissioner Garfield is inclined to the opinion that as the matter now stands insurance business may not be called "commerce," consequently, is not a matter for governmental supervision.

COMMANDANT AT HONOLULU.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Capt. W. H. Linn has been detached from duty at the navy yard at Portsmouth, N. H., and ordered to Honolulu to assume the duties of commandant at that station.

LONG FIGHT IS CLOSING.

Government Will Soon Show What It Intends to do in the Imperial Matter.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The long fight to determine whether the government shall take over the property and irrigation works owned by the California Development Company at Imperial, Cal., appears to be coming to a close, and perhaps, if things go right, it will be decided within a few weeks what is to be the future of this enterprise.

There arrived here today George W. Emerson, representing settlers at Imperial, and A. H. Heber, president of the California Development Company. Emerson came bearing a letter signed by a considerable number of settlers at Imperial, asking that the government move quickly in the matter of purchasing the property. This letter Emerson took to the White House and laid before the President. Of course, while the matter is before the Interior Department the President will take no direct action, but he did say to Emerson that he would ask the Interior Department to conclude its investigations as soon as possible and make its decision without unnecessary delay. Emerson also called upon Acting Secretary of the Interior Ryan.

Heber, who will remain here for several days, says he will take no action whatever and will not try to influence the government to act one way or the other. He says he is perfectly willing the government should buy the property, if he can get his price, $2,000,000. If he can't get that, he says he is against making the sale.

BELDAME AGAIN.

WINS SECOND SPECIAL.

(BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—Beldame, favorite in the betting at 11 to 20, won the second special, one and one-half miles at Gravesend today, defeating the best of the handicap horses now in training in the east. She covered five pounds to her competitors today, which was added as a penalty for her having won the first special on Monday. Broomstick, paying six to five for the place, was second, and McChesney third.

Only four horses faced the starter. McChesney was well played, his price dropping from 8 to 1 to 6. Broomstick and Afrikander were quoted at 7 to 1 and 8 to 1, respectively.

Beldame, as usual, had to be led to the post. At the second attempt the horses were sent away to a good start. Beldame broke in front, followed by Afrikander and Broomstick. McChesney was last away. Coding to the stand the first time Beldame was leading by one length and under a strong pull. Broomstick was second a head in front of Afrikander. McChesney was last, five lengths back. In the run down the back stretch O'Neill gave Beldame her head and she increased her lead to two lengths. Roaring into the stretch she was running easily while the other horses were under a hard drive. Beldame won by four lengths from Broomstick, who was one length in front of McChesney. McChesney closed very fast in the stretch and beat Afrikander by a nose. Results:

About six furlongs: Major Pelham won, Leonidas second, Collector Jessup third, time 1:14.

The King's Highway steeplechase, about two and a half miles: Fox Hunter won, St. Jude second, Bayle third, time 4:56 4-5.

Selling, five and a half furlongs: Caraphing won, Althea second, Bluecoat third, time 1:08.

The Second Special, mile and a half: Beldame, 112 (O'Neill), 11 to 20 won; Broomstick, 110 (Burns), 7 to 1 second; McChesney, 121 (Hildebrand), 6 to 1 third; time 2:35 2-5. Afrikander also ran.

Five and a half furlongs: Bulwarks won, Raimond second, Dance Music third, time 1:09.

Mile and a sixteenth: Grenad won, Ormond's Right second, Marlinus third, time 1:48.

PITNER NOT IN THE RACE.

Prominent Divine Declines to Run for Mayoralty.

Plenty of Candidates for the City Council.

Local Political Situation is Summed up.

Dr. John L. Pitner yesterday afternoon announced that he will not permit his name to be placed in connection with the Republican Mayoralty nomination. He arrived at this determination during a conference with a number of Republican leaders, held in the director's room of the Chamber of Commerce.

Those who attended the conference last night would not discuss the reasons given by Dr. Pitner for declining the nomination. They said that Dr. Pitner will embody them in a letter to the chairman of the City Central Committee. This letter will probably be made public tomorrow.

Dr. Pitner's refusal to stand for the Republican Mayoralty nomination leaves the City Central Committee with an office on its hands and no candidate. A number of Republicans have expressed themselves as willing to be struck by the Mayoralty lightning, but the Executive Committee appears fearful that all are of too weakly timber to withstand the shock.

Byron Erskine, who was yesterday afternoon started for N. R. (Jack) Martin, district passenger agent of the Southern Pacific.

Snyder appears to be the only candidate with an announced following. Led by Dr. Edelman and flanked by Eddie Morris and Tom Savers, the pro-Snyder forces are conducting a vigorous campaign.

Announcement of Farish's candidacy came as a surprise to the Democratic push. It has already resulted in alienating from Snyder much of the strength that he formerly received from west-of-main-street precincts. Farish is not talking for publication, but he goes into the campaign with an air of quiet confidence that appears disconcerting in the extreme to the opposition.

Friends of Ed Kern think Farish's candidacy will result in a division of the Snyder forces and that, backed by the First, Sixth and Seventh wards, their champion should have an easy victory.

Farish's a boiling heat by the unexpected return to the city of Mayor M. P. Snyder from his abbreviated eastern trip, the Democratic political pot is bubbling like a soap-fed geyser. Not the least of the surprises of the week were the announcements of Farish's active and Kern's receptive nomination.

COUNCILMANIC RUSH.
Councilmanic candidates are breaking from cover and coming to the front with a rush. In most wards the campaign bids fair to be fought out on party lines. When Farish announced himself as candidate for Mayor, the Democratic leaders abandoned their last hope of again capturing the Third Ward. They will endeavor to recoup themselves for this loss by securing a Democratic Councilman in either the Second or Sixth Wards. It is now practically conceded that the First, Third, Fourth, Fifth and Ninth wards will elect Republican Councilmen, that the Eighth Ward will elect a Democrat and that the Second, Sixth, Sixth and Seventh Wards will depend largely on the personality of the men nominated.

Councilman McAlister, by his own announcement, is definitely out of the race in the First Ward. When he started on his eastern trip, he left with a committee of his friends, a statement that he would not again be a candidate, with instructions to publish it just as soon as they had agreed upon a worthy successor. These friends agreed on Fred Ford, and on receipt of permission from McAlister, by telegraph, they published his withdrawal. Present indications are that Ford will have little or no opposition in his own party. The one known who will make the race on the Democratic ticket against Blanchard, and who will beat him, Mr. Simons was too busy last week making his quota of that million bricks to introduce his candidate to the waiting Ninth Warders.

FOR CITY OFFICES.
Deputy John F. Myers of the County Clerk's office will ask the Republican city convention to permit him to make the race for City Treasurer against W. H. Workman, who will probably receive the Democratic nomination by acclamation.

Capt. Hance, former City Clerk, is said to be desirous of securing the Democratic nomination for that office. Harry Leland, incumbent, apparently has no position in the Republican ranks.

Harry Stafford two years ago received the banner Republican majority for City Engineer. He is a candidate for a second term, and apparently has no opposition.

John Drain has challenged E. R. Weir's title to the Republican nomination for Superintendent of streets. Each candidate has a large following in his party, and the fight promises to be bitter. L. L. Clark and James Hanley have been mentioned as probable Democratic candidates.

Our clever line of infants' and children's headwear will interest you.

There are candidates and rumors of candidates ad infinitum. E. R. Allen, president of the Port Oil Company, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination on green cards tacked to telegraph and telephone poles all over the ward. Fred Biech, a union printer, who can lay claim to no following, and who two years ago was a candidate on the union-labor ticket, has adopted similar tactics in hopes of securing the Democratic nomination. Arthur Houston, alias Houghton, the spook doctor, has already forgotten his anti-election promises that under no circumstances would he be a candidate for the regular term, and has announced himself as an aspirant for the Democratic nomination. John Foley, who lost to Davenport two years ago, would like to have his party take him up and give him another chance. Former Councilman George Russell has lately confided to his friends that his duty in the water department is a bit too strenuous, and that he would be willing to give up a $100 a month job there if he could be assured of a $100 a month position in the Council. H. F. Burke, a Sixth Ward contractor, has announced his candidacy for the Republican nomination, as has W. J. Scholl, another contractor.

Ed Kern's receptive candidacy for the Democratic Mayoralty nomination has considerably disarranged Seventh Ward political programmes. Martin Hetkouski is touting "Kern for Mayor and me for the Council." Catechy Thom also has aspirations, that is, he provides a nucleus for a party of higher things. J. J. Johnson, who works for the Los Angeles Railway Company and claims to have done political work with Quay in the Pennsylvania Legislature, is a candidate for the Republican nomination. Harvey L. Hopkins, secretary of the park board, has been suggested as a possible Republican candidate, but Hopkins yesterday denied that he is seeking the office.

Savage, "El Hutch," Stille, Haley, Horgan, Hooser and half a dozen others have announced themselves as candidates for the Council from "de Ato." The game is young yet, and the chips appear to be pretty evenly distributed among the players.

E. L. Blanchard is the only Councilmanic candidate who has come out of the woods in the Ninth Ward. Notfarther has announced that he will not accept the office for another term, and his mantle appears to have fallen upon Blanchard's shoulders. Joe Simons claims to have an unknown who will make the race on the Democratic ticket against Blanchard, and who will beat him. Mr. Simons was too busy last week making his quota of that million bricks to introduce his candidate to the waiting Ninth Warders.

FOR CITY OFFICES.
Deputy John F. Myers of the County Clerk's office will ask the Republican city convention to permit him to make the race for City Treasurer against W. H. Workman, who will probably receive the Democratic nomination by acclamation.

Capt. Hance, former City Clerk, is said to be desirous of securing the Democratic nomination for that office. Harry Leland, incumbent, apparently has no position in the Republican ranks.

John Drain has challenged E. R. Weir's title to the Republican nomination for Superintendent of streets. Each candidate has a large following in his party, and the fight promises to be bitter. L. L. Clark and James Hanley have been mentioned as probable Democratic candidates.

Louis Schwabe, who now holds the office of City Auditor by appointment, is a candidate to succeed himself. He now looks as though he would receive the Republican nomination by acclamation.

But seven members of the Board of Education will this year be elected, instead of nine, the number elected in previous years, and all will be elected from the city at large. The candidates for places on the board are keeping carefully under cover until the political situation develops further. Justus William Rice, possibly the young man from nowhere, has distributed his political cards in the Republican League rooms. No Democratic candidate has been announced.

DEMOCRATIC CONFERENCE.
The Democratic legislative nominees for Los Angeles county will hold a conference, concerning questions relating to their candidacies, at the rooms of the Iroquois Club, Tuesday at 2 p.m.

Have You Ever Thought of Buying a Piano?

Our piano department is entirely different from any other in the city. In the first place it pays no rent. In the second place we buy our pianos direct from the factory and manufacture them for spot cash and they are shipped to us in carload quantities. Most piano stores are merely agents who sell on a commission and it is impossible for them to make prices lower than a certain level. With us we are able to save our patrons from $100.00 to $200.00 on new pianos and our terms are the very lowest and easiest in the city. We sell new upright pianos on payments as low as $1.00 per week.

THE CITY IN BRIEF.

BREVITIES.

Millinery opening: Miss E. C. Collins, the Broadway milliner, announces her fall and winter opening on Monday and Tuesday, September 26th and 27th. In making this announcement, Miss Collins congratulates the fashionable world upon the many refined and decidedly stylish changes which are occurring this season. In millinery, she says, the hats selected by Miss Collins own commissionaire in Paris, and imported direct by her, show many new and desirable departures. As usual, Miss Collins meets her trade this season after a most careful and exhaustive preparation. For years the acknowledged leader in millinery on the Coast, she has this season taken another important step in advance, by employing a permanent New York buyer of the highest ability. The time of this representative is entirely devoted to the interest of Miss Collins in the New York market. No importation of note and no display of New York models is overlooked, and the most desirable in modes and novelties are forwarded to Miss Collins as they appear on Fifth Avenue or in the select New York importing houses. As usual, Miss Collins, with her own head designer and two trimmers, have spent weeks in New York, and the very thing desirable in the millinery world was carefully examined, and every fashionable event and display were obtained. Absolutely no time or expense has been spared to produce a millinery display in every way worthy of the high reputation so long maintained by Miss Collins. The "Collins Hat" is now well known not only in the fashionable circles in Los Angeles, but in most of the large eastern centers as well; everywhere it stands for all that is up to date and refined in style in millinery. Miss Collins assures her patrons that she will exhibit a most complete line in every department, embracing Parisian models, Fifth Avenue designs, and "Collins Hats," models of her own head designer and a New York trimmer secured this season. Also smart street hats and medium-priced dress hats in most desirable variety. Miss Collins desires to state that the volume of her business is such as to enable her to purchase direct from the manufacturers and importers, and she guarantees her prices to be as low as goods of equal value can be purchased in any city. Invitation general; no cards.

THE CONTEST OF 1904.

Why Democratic Harmony is Lacking—"Trust Busting" Democrats—A Hopeless Contest—Where Judge Parker is Right—Roosevelt's Strong Words.

(SPECIALLY COMPILED FOR THE TIMES.)

"Once More Unto the Breach."
BEGINNING where it left off four years ago, The Times today resumes this regular Presidential campaign feature, and will continue it for forty-five days, or until November 8, next. In these columns will be presented from every possible reliable source the best current political thought, so that voters and others may be kept constantly and ably informed on the issues of the present struggle. The matter presented will be selected and edited by The Times own staff, condensed or elaborated as the occasion may require. From every consideration this special political feature is sure to prove interesting, instructive, convincing and useful to the people.

From time to time statistics will be published compiled from the government reports, which will clearly and indisputably show the tremendous advancement made by the country under the workings of Republican policies. These figures are not such as are fitted together for campaign purposes, but are the results of achievement. They are the plain balance sheets taken from Uncle Sam's double entry ledger. In these and in other ways, therefore, it is proposed to keep the people well informed on the great struggle now being waged, and to enlighten those who desire to know the truth as it exists.

Why Harmony is Lacking.

Considering that the so-called Democratic party is not a party at all, but an inharmonious mob composed of all the political riffraff that can find no abiding place elsewhere, it is not surprising that the rows and wrangles within its ranks should continually be upon the point of violent explosion. These wrangles were to have been expected when elements so acutely at variance as the trans-Missouri Bryanites and the Wall Street Belmontites undertook to sleep under the same party coverlet.

There is absolutely nothing in common between these two forces. They are fundamentally antagonistic to each other on most of the vital political issues of the day. They hate each other far more cordially than they hate the Republicans.

Hence it is that there is not even a perfunctory agreement upon the formal platform of the party. There was such an agreement in 1896 and 1900; there is none today. Whatever there is of a real platform has been promulgated, not by the St. Louis convention, but by the head of the Democratic ticket.

Judge Parker supplied, after a fashion, the omission of any reference to the currency, and he interpreted the Philippine pronouncement to mean "scuttle." These are the only two issues upon which there is even a semblance of authoritative Democratic deliverance. The rest are awry. On the tariff there is no unity. The platform declares protection to be a robbery, but no Democratic orator says so. On the contrary, the southerners and spinners unite in vociferating that the Democratic purpose is revision, not destruction, of the tariff schedules. The platform is clearly shown to have been a mere catchvote device, which is now repudiated, since it is a failure in that line.

There is no greater harmony respecting the trusts, since, while the bewhiskered Bryanites of the granger States may cry "down to the trusts," it is absurd to pretend that Messrs. Peabody and Belmont and their co-managers of the party machinery would assail enterprises in which their own interests are bound up.

Whatever the western wing of the party may say, the eastern wing is not going to commit financial hari-kari in the interest of party harmony.

The amount of it is that the so-called "reorganization" of the Democratic party has merely introduced discord and distrust into its ranks. No longer a coherent aggregation of Socialistic, Populistic advocates of flat money and repudiation, the party has become a free fight of the head in sight is smitten because every man is every other man's foe.

There is no Democratic harmony, because there is no Democratic party. —[Chicago Chronicle.]

Tillman's Frankness.

What Senator Tillman wrote to a friend in Nebraska in defense of the recent burning of negroes in the South by lawless mobs is characteristic and disconcerting and unimportant. One statement, anon, "throwing off the yoke of the black majority," is interesting for the frankness of its admission, however: "From necessity we used force and fraud to overcome the negro majority." Of course, it is hard to believe there can have been fraud in a State with such a representative in the highest council of the nation as the gentleman from South Carolina. —[Boston Transcript.]

A Few Blunders.

From the beginning of the campaign the Democratic canvass has been a series of blunders. It was a blunder at St. Louis to defeat that mild, very mild, expression in favor of gold which was proposed at the outset. That blunder left the silver planks in the platform of 1896 and 1900 as the latest official pronouncement of the Democracy on the money issue. Parker's gold telegram could not offset the cowardice and trickery by which the convention defeated the gold expression and left the finance question out of the platform altogether. The gold telegram was a blunder because it could not offset the exhibition of pottrooney which his party made in its convention, and at the same time it repelled the Bryanites of the western States, and gave up the whole section west of the Alleghenies to the Republicans without a struggle.

But the crowning blunder of all for the Democrats was the nomination of Parker. He has never displayed any strength in his own State, and he has been a continual disappointment ever since his nomination to all those who expected that his candidacy would put any life in his party. His speech of acceptance was weak to the point of contemptibility. There was nothing in it to give any enthusiasm to his party. Neither Taggart nor Gorman was responsible for Parker's nomination. Hill is the man who will bear all the blame for that blunder. But the extinction of Taggart and the recrudescence of Gorman will not repair that fatal mistake. The conditions are against the Democrats on all sides, and Gorman will injure his own reputation as a party manager without helping his party by leading the forlorn hope of 1904. —[St. Louis Globe Democrat.]

"Trust Busting" Democrats.

In the attempt to inject ginger into the campaign it is rather curious that it has never occurred to the Democratic managers to start a whirlwind canvass by the millionsaire at headquarters. There is bound to be more or less difference among the people to the ordinary Democratic spellbinders. Nobody cares especially to hear the conventional attacks on the President or to listen to the perfunctory praise of the virtues of so uninteresting a character as Judge Parker.

But it is a safe guess that no such apathy would attend meetings to be addressed by the financial magnates who are in charge of the Democratic canvass. People would gladly pay good money to hear them. It would be the easiest thing in the world, for instance, to pack Convention Hall with an admission charge of a dollar a seat if August Belmont would only consent to lecture there on "My Father's Own Story of the Rothschilds and the Crime of '73."

Mr. Belmont, as director in more than thirty-six corporations and the Rothschild's agent, would probably be the best drawing card. But an man prominently connected with the Parker management is to be sneezed at as a popular attraction. There is Mr. Cord Meyer, for instance, one of the original members of the sugar trust, who could doubtless give a fetching address on "The Dangers of Great Combinations of Capital." The country is hungering for information from Mr. P. H. McCarren, the Standard Oil lobbyist, on "How to Fight the Trusts."

Mr. George Foster Peabody, the banker and corporation director, could make an effective speech on "The Rights of the Plain People." There would be keen interest in an explanation by Mr. Sheehan of corporation fame on "Trust Methods and How to Deal With Them," while Mr. De La Roche Nicoll would draw well with an exposition of "The Corporations as Law Breakers."

The average stump speaker has all his information at second hand. These men would know from personal observation what they were talking about. They could give all sorts of "inside" news as to the evils of corporate aggression. There would be no question as to public interest in their remarks. If Mr. Taggart really wants to make things lively let him turn his millionsaire loose on the country. —[Kansas City Star.]

The Campaign Outlook.

As campaign matters stand today, the Parker and Davis ticket is certain to carry Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia.

All the remaining States are equally certain to go for Roosevelt and Fairbanks—with one single exception. —[New York Sun.]

Roosevelt's Influence.

President Roosevelt has wielded more influence over Congress and the people than any elected President except Washington and Jackson. Like Jackson, he is his party's platform. His political enemies pay him the tribute of disregarding their own and the Republican platform, and declare that Roosevelt is the issue. His political supporters enthusiastically and unanimously accept battle on this line. He and not his party's platform has been the issue in all the State elections since he became President.

He was in an especial degree of the issue in the Congressional election of 1902—the fateful mid-Presidential Congressional canvass, which is always adverse and often is disastrous to the party in control of the government—and he won a majority of thirty in the House of Representatives as compared with forty failed under the stimulus of the Presidential campaign in 1900. A triumph on this scale in an off-year congressional canvass has not been gained by any other President since James Monroe took office. It has been the fond fancy of the Democrats that their cue was to make Roosevelt the issue. But as far as they have gone, they haven't made much headway.

Judge Parker is Right.

Candidate Parker writes to Literary Bureau Parker that Democratic campaign literature should be very sparing in its attack on Theodore Roosevelt. The judge is right. It is best not to monkey with the buzz-saw. The less said about Roosevelt the better. It has been the fond fancy of the Democrats that their cue was to make Roosevelt the issue. But as far as they have gone, they haven't made much headway.

Theodore Roosevelt was the issue in Oregon in June, and the verdict was 24,000 majority for the Republican State ticket. He was the issue in Vermont, and a weak Republican candidate for Governor was elected by a large majority over rolled up in that State except in 1896. He was the issue in Maine, and the local elements of disturbance were so completely eliminated that the Republican candidate was elected by an almost unexampled majority. Roosevelt will be the issue in New York, New Jersey and every other State of the North and West the November. Yes, judge, you are right.

What does Theodore Roosevelt stand for? We have been printing some of his maxims on this page from time to time. He stands for five things—courage, honesty, decency, strength, common sense. He says that the coward and the weakling are not the men for him or for the American people. He says that the man with the hard heart is not much more dangerous in practical affairs than the man with the soft head. He says that this government, so long as he administers it, shall be run neither by a plutocracy nor a mob. He says that the foundation of successful government lies in the moral rectitude of its individuals. He says that the men we must have in power are the men who are clean in life.

This is the philosophy of Theodore Roosevelt, and its perfect exemplification is found in himself. It is the embodiment of the finest spirit in our national life. It cannot be successfully attacked, and the less the Democrats attack it the less of a jolt they will get in November. Judge Parker is right. —[Portland Oregonian.]

A Hopeless Fight.

Thoughtful Democrats have probably not entertained much hope of success in the present campaign, but the thoughtless enthusiastic partisans, if they do not largely outnumber their more philosophic brethren, are generally more vociferous and managed to a considerable extent to impress their views on the party. The latter have been greatly shaken of late by events the significance of which it is impossible to ignore, and the results in Vermont and Maine will in all probability extinguish their enthusiasm. These States may be fairly regarded as politically typical of any and all the States except those in the South. There are two parties in each of them and both parties have had their factional quarrels. This may be said of every State in the Union, for though the Southern States have practically but one party it has its factions, and serious ones at that. In spite of divisions the Republican party polled a phenomenal vote in Vermont and Maine. The Maine Democrats are as partisan, if not more so, than in any American State and they made supreme effort, but they failed to weaken the Republican phalanx, while in Vermont many of the Democrats voted squarely with the Republicans, declining to sever the connection to which they were driven by Bryanism.

The people of these two States are not essentially different from the people of other States. They are as amenable to reason as others, and as likely to be influenced by political happenings which call for reflection and a change of political views. If there were any serious opposition to Republican administration outside of a partisan Democracy it would certainly show itself in these States. It might not be decided in Vermont as in some other States, but it would be seen and felt in the election, while in Maine it would manifest itself as fully as in any other State of the Union. The votes of these States speak for themselves. There is absolutely no weakening in the Republican ranks, no drift whatever from the Republican party to the Democrats, while a considerable number of the latter are acting with the Republicans and may be regarded as permanently enrolled in the party.

There will probably be no further effort of the Democrats to carry any New England State. The most obtuse will recognize that Connecticut and Rhode Island are Democratic strongholds, and the lesson taught by these elections is far broader. There is no more probability of carrying Indiana and New Jersey than there was of carrying Maine or of reducing the majority in the State of New York. It is evident from these elections that the Republicans are not only satisfied with their party's administration of public affairs, but are highly gratified and most anxious for a continuance of the country's prosperity under the same conditions. There is absolutely no drift from the Republican ranks to the Democratic party, not the slightest indication of such a movement, and unless hundreds of thousands of Republicans vote the Democratic ticket in November there can be no reasonable hope of a Democratic victory. —[Baltimore American.]

Promises and Deeds.

We are content to rest our case before the American people upon the fact that to adherence to a lofty ideal we have added proved governmental efficiency. Our promises may surely be trusted as regards any issue that is now before the people; and we may equally be trusted to deal with any problem which may hereafter arise. —[President Roosevelt.]

Cause of Prosperity.

We have enacted a tariff law under which during the past few years the country has attained a height of material well being never before reached. We are higher than ever before. That whenever the need arises there should be a readjustment of the tariff is a question far otherwise the changes made amount not to readjustment, but to repeal. The readjustment when made must maintain and not destroy the protective principle. —[From President Roosevelt's speech of acceptance.]

Equal Justice to All.

We Americans give to men of all races equal and exact justice. That has been our boast as a nation ever since the day when the Puritan Massachusetts and the Catholic Maryland sat in the same hall and signed the same Declaration of Independence. On the roll of honor where we have engraved the names of the nation's statesmen and soldiers, patriots and commonwealth builders, no distinction is known of creed or of race origin, nor even of birthplace. —[Theodore Roosevelt.]

Capital and Labor.

Combinations of capital and of labor are the results of the economic movement of the age, but neither must be permitted to infringe upon the rights and interests of the people. Such combinations, when lawfully formed for lawful purposes, are alike entitled to the protection of the laws, but both are subject to the laws, and neither can be permitted to oppress them. —[Republican National Platform.]

Sound Money.

Paris, Berlin and New York have contributed to make this gathering complete. There's elegance and refinement of style that are pleasing, and variety to satisfy every popular whim.

It's a fashion show of more than ordinary importance to women of this section.

You are cordially invited to attend the exhibit this week beginning Monday, September 25.

To See "All" the New Styles Visit Henshey's

Big New Store, 521 S. Broadway.

Of course you have heard everybody talking about the new woman's outfitting store. Very likely you bought many things at our former location, Third and Broadway. Our new store has all the attractions of our other location with a hundred improvements.

The new Henshey store is just such a place as a woman loves to trade in. Everything artistic, new, comfortable, convenient. If your new suit or any other article comes from Henshey's that means at once that it is proper and correct.

$25.00 TAILOR-MADE SUITS $20

We speak about this lot because we have made a special effort to gather fine suits at this price. They come in the popular brown, also in blue, black, or mixtures. The materials are stylish Fall weaves and the styles include collarless jackets, jackets with collars, and stunning little military effects. Every suit is carefully man tailored. You will see many suits about the city marked $30.00 that are not nearly so winning or effective.

"ALL" THE NEW STYLES

Unless you visit our store you will miss many of the prettiest styles that have been brought out for Fall and Winter for in gathering this big stock we secured many of the exclusive novelties with the understanding that no other store should have them.

The chief principle behind this business will be our adherence to moderate prices. No need of paying an excessive price when you can come to Henshey's and select from this rare stock at convenient figures. We have tailor-made suits of a high order as low as $15.00 and all sorts of others as high as $60.00.

NEW DEPARTMENTS ADDED

The growth of our business has been so great that we have followed the requests of our patrons and added new departments of corsets, muslin underwear, knit underwear, and hosiery. While our prices are no higher than you would pay to a department store, yet almost every garment has a certain charm of individuality that adds much to the pleasure of wearing it. We are sure you will be fairly delighted with the new store, and tomorrow you should by no means fail to come here and inspect it.

This week we offer special values in a pretty silk waist $5.00. Cravatte rain coats at $13.50 and $15.00. Also smart Fall jackets.

J. R. LANE BUYS HIS PARTNER'S STOCK IN BUSINESS

Old Firm of Crandall & Lane Dissolves and New Will Be Known Henceforth as J. R. Lane Dry Goods Company.

Every Department of the Store is to Be Reorganized and All Are to Be Under Personal Supervision of Head of Firm.

The well known dry goods store owned by Crandall & Lane at 327 and 329 South Broadway is now the property of the J. R. Lane Dry Goods Company.

The change of name and ownership was effected yesterday. It was not until the company bought all of Crandall's stock that the change became known. The present incorporation is the same as the old one except for the change of name and for the fact that Crandall now owns no stock in it.

"I shall immediately set to work to make the store the most popular one in Los Angeles," said Mr. Lane yesterday. "I cannot speak of the causes which led to the dissolution of partnership, but I will say that the store will certainly be benefited by the change."

"Our general business will be improved," departments will be enlarged and in every way the service and the goods bettered. While we do not contemplate acquiring any more store room at present, we have hopes for the future. If we succeed in our efforts to bring the shopping trade of Los Angeles to our doors our improvements will be continued as fast as they are needed."

Mr. Lane will give personal attention to every detail of the business from now on.

Cowboy "Bethlehem" in the Northwest Wilderness.

It's the length of many a coyote cry from Vignes street, Los Angeles, to the star-roofed prairies of Alberta, in the heart of the Northwest Territory; but a cowboy, an ex-drunkard, and the Rev. Dana W. Bartlett have bridged it. Amid the lonely silences of Alberta a gospel hymn sung one night two years ago in Bethlehem Institute, Vignes street, is reaching now, to the rhythmic swing of frontier axes that are hewing from the virgin forest ninety-two logs for the building of a chapel in the wilderness whose name shall be "Bethlehem."

Nearly two years ago Rev. Mr. Bartlett had the plunge pool at the Bethlehem Baths floored over, and conducted a series of "paper services" there. On one night of each week he gave a lecture illustrated by excellent stereoscopic views, and on one of these lecture nights he was attracted toward the end of the entertainment by an odd-looking couple at the farther end of the room. The strangers were a young, handsome and well-built man, with the free air of independent swing of the rancher and cowboy about him, and held in his arms a dainty little girl with bright eyes, rosy cheeks and flossy hair, who throughout the entertainment had attracted pleased attention by her hearty appreciation of the stereoscopic pictures shown in the incessant clapping of her tiny hands.

Upon engaging the man in conversation, the fact that his name was W. T. Archer, that he had been a cowboy, but had drifted to the cities, finally to Los Angeles, and settling in the neighborhood of Bethlehem, had taken a job in the gas works, were brought out. Further talk with Pastor Bartlett uncovered the fact that he had been for years, and was still a heavy drinker. Upon going over several quotations from the Bible, which he thought would fit this man's case and lend him strength and courage to seek a better life, Mr. Bartlett was exceedingly surprised to find that Archer was almost an adept in his ability to quote the scriptures, showing readily that he had not only read and reread, but had studied them deeply.

"He had just come out from the States, and I supposed he would or could dig up some good story books, or a rattling robbery tale in an old weekly, or a dime novel from his traps," said Archer, "but after hauling things over he handed me a Bible."

"I was bitterly disappointed, but as I was almost mad with loneliness and a hunger for something to read, although it was nothing but a Bible, I sat there on that lonesome prairie day after day, and many a time stretched out full length in front of a camp fire, reading that book. And I tell you, parson, I found it mighty interesting reading."

Mr. Bartlett took a great interest in the man and his family, finally inducing him to leave off drink and profanity, and care for his little family better than he had been doing.

Within a short time there was a perceptible change in the man. He dropped his evil ways and began to attend church, being a constant worshiper with his little family at Bethlehem each Sabbath. He began saving money, and one day came to Pastor Bartlett with the statement that he had determined to use these savings as a first payment on a small ranch in Alberta, and settle down there with his family.

But a short time ago Mr. Bartlett received a letter from Archer, saying he had prospered beyond his fondest hopes; he had land, home and stock, and that this fall he and a number of men on neighboring ranches would cut ninety-two logs and build a church which they would name "Bethlehem."

"When this little log house of worship is built in that faraway, lonely land, it will be one more monument to the noble work carried on at the Los Angeles 'Bethlehem.'"

Inquiry developed the reason for this. Archer informed him that one time while watching a bunch of cattle on a lonely, isolated ranch, he had met a traveler, whom he had asked for something to read.

"He had just come out from the States, and I supposed he would or could dig up some good story books, or a rattling robbery tale in an old weekly, or a dime novel from his traps," said Archer, "but after hauling things over he handed me a Bible."

"I was bitterly disappointed, but as I was almost mad with loneliness and a hunger for something to read, although it was nothing but a Bible, I sat there on that lonesome prairie day after day, and many a time stretched out full length in front of a camp fire, reading that book. CALIFORNIA PEOPLE.

A. M. Phelan, an old-time California school-teacher, and for the past eight years School Superintendent of Contra costa county, died in Petaluma last week.

By the death of an aunt, Mrs. Mary Lavinia, a resident of Petaluma, has fallen heir to the greater portion of an estate valued at $200,000. When the aunt died in Sonoma county some years ago he was without friends and penniless. Later he has been employed as a gardener.

John W. Grace, who died in England recently, was an old-Californian, having been engaged in the shipping and commission business in San Francisco for many years. He established a line of clipper ships between the latter city and New York, and did much to advance the commercial interests of the port. He was a brother of the late W. R. Grace, formerly Mayor of New York.

E. B. Willis, formerly managing editor of the Sacramento Record-Union and later secretary of the California World's Fair Commission, which position he recently resigned, has purchased the Placer County Republic.
 In a statement regarding the future policy of the Republic, Mr. Willis said: "This paper will combat the idea which has become so fixed in the minds of eastern people, that Los Angeles is about to be in California."

By the death of P. B. Corwell, who is mortally ill at his residence in San Francisco, the State of California will lose the last survivor of the first Legislature. A pioneer of pioneers, Mr.
 Corwell came to California in 1847, sharing his years in the gold fields and has had no small share in the upbuilding of the State. He was always interested in politics and at one time was chairman of the Republican State Central Committee.

The Stanford Alumnus has just appeared as a monthly publication, under the editorship of Archie Rice, a member of the pioneer class of '95, and at present a San Francisco newsman. The new editor is a Southern California boy, having been born and raised in Santa Barbara.
 During his years in college he paid special attention to fitting himself for journalistic work, and upon graduation joined the staff of a San Francisco newspaper.

Lieut. A. T. Graham has been detached from the Navy for duty as engineer of the new cruiser Chat-tanoocha when that craft is commissioned.

Lieut.-Commander A. A. Ackerman has been detached from the Naval War College and ordered to duty at the Ordnance Department, Washington
 Navy Yard.

Rear-Admiral William M. Folger, commanding the cruiser squadron of the Asiatic fleet, has ordered that Paymaster John Irwin, Jr., be tried by court-martial on the charge of conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman. The alleged offense is said to have been committed in Manila.
 Paymaster Irwin is a son of the late Rear-Admiral Irwin, and is well known on this coast.

Major-General James P. Wade, who has been in command of the Division of the Philippines, has been ordered to assume command of the Department of the Coast, with headquarters at Governor's Island, to be vacated by Gen.
 Corbin October 1. Pending the arrival of Gen. Corbin, Major-General Leonard Wood will assume command of the Philippines. Gen. Wade is a son of the late Gen. Wade, former United States Senator from Ohio.

Chaplain Edward J. Valtman, Eleventh Cavalry, who has just been retired for age, has a fine record in the service. During the labor riots at Chicago in 1894, at the peril of his life, he mounted a freight car, faced thousands of infuriated people, and exhorted them to disperse. He went to Rome with the Taft commission, which settled the friars' lands dispute with the Pope, and then made a tour of the Philippines to collect data for the President.

By the retirement of Col. McGinnis, Ordnance Department, the following officers in that department each advanced one grade: Lieut.-Col. Charles Shaler, General Staff; Maj. James Rockwell, Jr., Capt. Ormond M. Lissack, Col. McGinnis was graduated from the Military Academy and assigned to the Ordnance Department in 1882. During the remainder of the war he was stationed in the Department of the South. He was chief ordnance officer of the Pacific and Eighth Army Corps, Manila, in 1899. He goes on the retired list with the rank of brigadier-general.

A German scientist has discovered that the nearest approach to the elixir of life is contained in that anyone desiring to attain a ripe old age is to daily quaff copious draughts of this beverage. This will be good news to drymen and milk dealers.

Procrastination has long been noted as the "Thief of Time," but there is a miscreant in Stanhope, N. J., who has made several attempts to murder it by clogging the wheels of the town clock and otherwise disabling its inner workings. Perhaps the ruffian never read what Young wrote so many years ago: "Who murders Time, he crushes in the birth a power eternal, not only adored."

An Oakland candy maker is likely to fall into the meshes of the law.
 Mrs. Giffney, a resident of the California town, has made formal complaint against one Bruning, charging him with cruelty to insects in maintaining a candy factory which attracts the bees in the vicinity. The honey makers following their instinct fly in at the windows and are caught and killed or are carried up the elevator shaft to destruction.

The next thing to giving one's life for a friend is to insure one's life for the benefit of an object dear to one's heart. This is just what Mrs.
 Pauline Lyon of Chicago has done.
 In order to provide the Woman's Athletic Club of that city with a permanent home, she has taken out an insurance policy upon her life for $200,000, which a banker is to accept as collateral and advance the amount to be applied to the object so dear to Mrs. Lyon's heart.

The head of one of the great detective systems of the country comes out strongly in favor of the whipping post as a punishment for footpads and burglars. In his opinion, he says, "has no terror for the hardened criminal, but the application of the lash in public places would send him of his evil practices. Some years ago the California Legislature enacted a law punishing wife beaters with the lash and there was a prospect that that crime would cease in the State. A judge, however, filled with the wisdom of the law, decided the act was unconstitutional."

On June 1st you might have bought 1000 shares of Mt. Whitney stock for $20—that price has gone; it has gradually risen to 8c a share. This price will not last long. It is wisdom to purchase now.

"Judgment to Discern an Opportunity and the Boldness to Grasp It Is the Secret of Success"

There is no telling how high Mt. Whitney Gold Mining Co.'s stock will go. Less promising prospects have developed into enormous dividend paying properties. A small investment now may mean your future fortune.

Mt. Whitney Gold Mining Stock is the Stock to Purchase

1. It has high grade ore on the surface and in the underground workings.
2. The ore bodies show strength, width and length.
3. The ore can be mined and milled at the lowest possible cost from the mine.
4. It has three of the best tunnel sites, and the ore can and will be run out on cars, and the cars will not have to be hoisted, or any water to be pumped.
5. No expensive hoisting plants will ever have to be installed and high priced pumping plants will not be needed, as the mine is self draining.
6. The Directors will not run Mt. Whitney Gold Mining Company into debt, and are handling its affairs conservatively.
7. The management is active and the development is going on continually; ore reserves are being blocked out every day.
8. There is abundance of timber on the property to last the company many years.
9. The Mount Whitney mine is only five miles from the fertile river valley, where all kinds of fruits, vegetables, grains, hay, etc., grow in abundance.
10. Supplies can be had direct from the producer.
11. Every stockholder is regularly informed regarding the development of the mine, whether it be favorable or otherwise.

THIS ILLUSTRATION SHOWS MT. WHITNEY THE RANGE OF COUNTRY TWO SMALL CITIES AND THE THREE TUNNELS ON OUR PROPERTY. TWO ORE CHUTES WILL BE ENCOUNTERED IN THE LOWER TUNNEL. THE FIRST ONE HAS BEEN PASSED THROUGH AND THE SECOND ONE BEING NEARED. THIS TUNNEL HAS A GOOD TRACK Laid AND ORE CARS TO FACILITATE THE WORK.

12. The books of the company are open at all times for inspection by any stockholder.
13. Shares in the Mt. Whitney mine are now selling at eight (8) cents.
14. The Mt. Whitney gold mine vein has been thoroughly tested on the surface and is now being explored at depth, with wonderful results.
15. The Mt. Whitney gold mine contains enough gold per ton to pay for all mining, milling and incidental expenses, with enough money left to pay good dividends to the stockholders.
16. On account of the favorable location, the cost of developing and equipping the Mt. Whitney gold mine will be much less than for most of the mines.
17. The Mt. Whitney Gold Mining Company absolutely owns ten claims, and has no indebtedness.
18. Last sample taken from the mine on Sept. 20 assayed $252.35 per ton.
19. We are willing to allow you to make a personal examination of the Mt. Whitney gold mine at our expense in order that we may verify every statement made.
20. You may ask anyone in Los Angeles if the above statements are not correct.

Money Is Lost.

There was more money lost through the failure of banks last year than has been lost through mining investments during the last five years.

The statistics for 1902 show that there were about 1000 failures among the savings banks throughout the country, and that about 40 of the national banks also went under.

Mining is so much more a gamble than is the purchase of real estate. If the business of the country is good, your real estate stands a chance of increase. On the other hand, more money has been sunk in the purchase of boom real estate than all the mines of the world cost.

A Banker's Opinion.

A well-known banker has said that the money invested in mining equals the amount of money invested in banking, but the former pays much larger dividends. There is undoubtedly more money lost in speculating in corn, wheat and real estate than in mining. It is estimated that the annual dividends on the nominal capitalization of mining companies amounts to more than 13 per cent. It is no wonder, therefore, that during this year there has been such an inquiry for good investments in mines and mining stocks.

Mining Investments.

To make mining profitable, three important things are required. These are able and efficient management, ore bodies of sufficient size and richness, and money enough to pay for such advance development and equipment as are essential to economical operations. If the management is in the hands of men having honest business motives, they can be depended upon not to undertake the development of a property until they are reasonably satisfied that it contains ore of the necessary richness and in sufficient quantity to make a mine. Therefore more really depends on the management of a mining company than on any other factor.

Mining is Safe.

Under the management of honest men, mining has become a safe and legitimate business, and one in which any person can properly enlist, but the man is not born yet who can definitely fix on what the returns from a property will be, whether they prove sufficient to pay interest on the principal invested or not enough to give back even a portion of the amounts put in.

Gold Production.

Of all mining, the production of gold appeals most strongly to the reason and foresight of the man who strives to anticipate adverse conditions. Gold is the king of business. If the time ever comes when gold is not worth its present price, then you and I and all the rest of us may as well quit. That would be the end of this world, so far as business is concerned. True, another world might be established, but it would be a queer one, and the result of a process of readjustment colossal in its proportions.

Fortunes in Mining.

More money has been lost within a square mile in business pursuits in New York than has been lost in the development of all the mines of the West. The memory of the business failures remains only by inspection of old books. The prospector's mound of rocks stands forever.

Fortunes are to be obtained by following mining as a profession or by investment in mining stocks, and the business men of today are realizing this fact and profiting by it as in no other period of the business.

Bankers in Mines.

It is a noticeable fact that scores of the leading and conservative bankers are interesting themselves largely in mining. Mining is no more regarded as a speculative business, but a legitimate field for the shrewd business man. During the past month several good mining companies have been organized in various parts of the country, the officials being well-known bankers.—The National Banker.

Inyo County, California, has long been known and recognized as one of the richest mineralized points of the Golden State. A reputation which its great production of gold justifies. It contains within its borders many great dividend paying properties and yet with all of its vast productions of wealth the systematic development of its inexhaustible ore deposits has little more than begun. With the advent of modern scientific methods of mining and milling a new impetus has been given to the gold industry and the future of Inyo County promises soon to overshadow the past.

As development work goes forward on the great Spear group of mines, owned by this company, at the base of Mt. Whitney, the possibilities of a mine of surpassing riches seem assured.

Study the pictures shown above, you will understand the work we have in hand. The upper and central tunnel is completed, and the lower tunnel is passed through the first ore chute and is nearing the second ore chute, under the splendid work of two shifts of men.

Frequent assays are made, showing values up to more than $252 a ton. This Company owns its own assay office, blacksmith shop, track, ore cars, and its property free from all incumbrances.

Every day adds to the brightness of the outlook---but when the mine begins to pay a dividend will be too late to buy stock---today is the day stock in the Mt. Whitney Gold Mining Co. is only 8c a share at this date. At one time, and only a few weeks ago it was 2c a share, followed by slow but steady raises to the present figures. Next week it may be more. Fill out at once one of the coupons printed on this page and send it to us at once. It may mean that you will some day have an income of several hundred dollars a week.

Remember you are getting in on the ground floor on this proposition and with the original promoters--your money helps develop the property.

It is hoped that Mount Whitney will equal in dividends some of its prosperous neighbors. If it does your stock will increase to fabulous figures. Send at once for the latest report from the secretary on his trip to the property. It will be ready to give out tomorrow, Monday, Sept. 26. It contains information of great value.

We earnestly urge you to purchase stock at the present time while you can get it at this price--an opportunity which will not hold good long. Don't delay, do it at once.

OLD SMOBILE

Wonderful Touring Record

The Oldsmobile Light Touring Car made a remarkable record in the famous run from New York to St. Louis last August. The fact that it accomplished this 1500 mile journey with only one involuntary stop (the breaking of a chain) proves its reliability on any trip over all kinds of roads.

It finished among the first at every control and had less trouble in breakage than any other car on the road. Over rough roads it could be driven faster than cars costing $15,000.00. The performance of the

was the talk of the run and is evidence of what you yourself can do with the machine. For $950.00 is given more than the so-called $1,250.00 value in other light touring cars.

BAGS OF GOLD FOR JENNINGS.

California Horses Winning Everything in Sight.

Beldame the Greatest Mare World Ever Produced.

Many Turf Cracks Coming to Ascot This Year.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] California horses won no less than fifteen of thirty-six races run at Gravesend the past week. Beginning with Grey Friar Monday, purses were won on the following days by Santa Catalina, "Grenada's" Right, Oiseau, Letois, (2) Teacress, Hurstbourne, Gold "Rose, Graceful, Dainty, Juvenago, Chrysalis, Czaraphine and Grenade.

Walter Jennings had an especially fortunate week, winning twice with Letois and once with the great filly, Dainty. On each occasion the California owner had good bets down at liberal odds. The season has been by far the best Jennings has had in the East for many years. Letois, Dainty and Proper have been consistent bread winners from the start. All three will probably be seen later at Ascot Park and if in their eastern form should take care of the biggest stakes of the Los Angeles meeting.

The weather during the week has been unusually cold; winter overcoats were comfortable. At night, the thermometer fell to forty and cold winds during the day made most disagreeable conditions for good sport. The effect was seen in greatly diminished attendance at all outdoor meetings. Horse owners are making plans for the western exodus. Many, contrary to their usual custom, will be in California for the opening instead of waiting until the season there is well along. California Frenel and coal-black Lady Imp, in their prime might have given Newton Bennington's filly, Beldame, an argument, weight for age, and over any distance of ground, but those who saw the great daughter of Octagon win the second special at Gravesend will not admit it.

The second special is one of the fall classics, a weight-for-age affair, at a mile and a half. Three-year-old Beldame met cracks like McChesney; the once great California colt, Africander, and Broomstick, who holds the world's record for a mile and a quarter. She galloped into the ground the first mile and came breezing in with her ears pricked and actually smiling back at those behind. It was just a gallop from start to finish, confirming what the turfmen have come to believe—that Beldame is the greatest mare the world has ever seen. She has met and conquered the best colts and fillies, never receiving weight, but often conceding it in chunks. Beldame was three lengths in front for the first mile, then she increased it to six lengths, and the race was over. Broomstick lasted long enough to beat McChesney for the place, with Africander fourth, a head away. It was Beldame's seventh successive victory, and her fourteenth for the season. She finished third in Irish Lad in the Metropolitan Handicap, and second to Hermis in a mile race at Brighton, her only defeats. In both cases she got off badly or her record as a three-year-old would have been clean. She is in reality the property of August Belmont, but her racing qualities are leased by Newton Bennington. Thus far this season Beldame has won over $50,000 in stakes and purses alone. In addition Bennington, who is a multimillionaire, has backed her heavily in all her races, regardless of price. Her lease has netted him over $200,000 in stakes and wagers won.

MORE BRICKS FOR DUGDALE.

FAT MANAGER AGAIN HANDED THE WORST OF IT.

Roach Case Reopened and is Decided Against Him—Now the Hurley Matter is Thrashed Out and Dugdale Must Make Good—Truck Eagan Not Drafted—Other News.

Fatty Dugdale was handed the tarry end of the stick twice by the National Commission of Gold Brick Showers last week. First he was shipped a package in the Roach case, which had once been decided in his favor. Then, last but not least, the corpulent manager was informed by President Bert that he would have to satisfy Little Rock's claims to Hurley. This last is a sore blow, as Hurley is the apple of "Dug's" eye. Farrell, secretary of the National Gold Brick Association, seems to have a grudge for this cause, and particularly for Dugdale. One would think it was about time a piece of brick house fell on some of the Pacific Coast League suckers to show them "where they were at." Such a barefaced piece of highway robbery as this phony agreement ought never to be tolerated a minute. "Our Jeeves" Morley seems to be about the only manager in the lot who has nooodle enough to see the holes in the deal. He never did like it. It is no disgrace to wretch out of a confidence game, and no crime to beat short-card sharpers any way the trick can be turned. The league can't get busy with the ax on that agreement any too soon for local fans, most of whom think it is a grabbing scheme of the worst order.

The only concession made to Dugdale was the granting of permission to take certain punk players from the Pacific National League. Matt Stanley was by far the best of the lot.

Truck Eagan has not been drafted, so Mike Fisher will not lose his pet shortstop. Charlie Graham has been taken

TRY-OUT ON THE GRIDIRON.

Big Middle West Teams Get Down to Business.

Showing Made by Chicago is a Keen Disappointment.

Minnesota and Nebraska Put up Good Exhibitions.

CHICAGO, Sept. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Chicago, 29; Lawrence, 0; Minnesota, 77; South Dakota, 9; Illinois, 10; Northwestern College, 0; Nebraska, 12; Grand Island College, 0; Purdue, 3; Chicago North Division High School, 0; Northwestern 17; Ft. Sheridan Athletic Club, 0; Iowa, 16; Coe College, 0. Five of the big Middle West college eleven tested their strength on the gridiron this afternoon. It was Chicago's third game of the season and Minnesota's second, but the other teams were out for the first time. The showing of Minnesota and Nebraska was good, while that of Chicago was a keen disappointment.

A score of 29 to 0 in a game of thirty-five minutes—against a team averaging but 155 pounds is not a creditable showing for the last practice game, and this only a week before the first big game. Of these points, 17 were made by the scrubs in the first half, which was twenty minutes long. In the fifteen minutes of the second half the "varsity" could earn but 12 points.

South Dakota was an unknown quantity until three minutes after play began, when the Minnesota football team jumped on the visitors for a touchdown, which was followed repeatedly by touchdowns and goals. Illinois met Tartar when the Northwestern College team from Naperville held the Illinois to a score of 10 to 1. Practically playing even with the State eleven, the orange and blue men scored two touchdowns on the visitors in the first half, but Naperville braced and its goal was never seriously threatened after that.

New York Giants Playing a Schoolboy Game.

Football Season Opens in New York City.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] With the pennant clinched for 1904, the New York Giants have been playing this week like a lot of amateur school boys. They took a brace today and fell upon the former champion Pittsburghs to the tune of three to nothing. The Giants literally have Gotham fans by the heels. At a benefit sale, Owner Brush subscribed $5000 for a single box, and others went in for goodly sums. Enthusiastic fans are also showering the boys with hats and orders on swell tailors. Theater managers are vying with one another in tendering boxes to players. Varsity it looks good to outside players to be a hero Giant.

Cold weather was hailed with delight by football lovers. Some of the big college elevens are most promising and the best season in years is predicted. Columbia today played the first game of the year with Union College, winning by ten to nothing.

The World says: "Into the limelight for Jeffries. And Broadway spotlight at that. Corbett, Young Corbett, Fitzsimmons, Terrible Terry McGovern and other Thespians please note that Broadway end of the game. No one has ever suspected that Jeffries had any art concealed about his person, that is, no one except George Lederer. Lederer puts on shows and things and knows an actor when he sees one. can pick them with his eyes shut, and as for show girls, but then this is about Mr. James Jeffries, who among other things, is married, and according to Mrs. James Jeffries, Mr. James's name is not to be mentioned at the same time with show girls. For the present, it is enough that Mr. Jeffries is going the stage and on the Broadway stage, as has been hinted above. Lederer recently produced a play at the Herald Square Theater called 'The Spellbinder.' This play is not, as many people believe, dead, but only sleeping. Later in the season it is to come back to Broadway, after being fixed up. Jeffries is to be part of the fixing. This afternoon Lederer telephoned the World for the address of Jeffries. This was cheerfully furnished, and then Lederer inquired if anyone knew whether or not Jeffries would be willing to make a big piece of money. There may have been times when Jeffries would overlook a bet, but they are not on record, and Lederer was not informed cheerfully again. Then Lederer unfolded his brilliant scheme. He would get Mr. Jeffries for a small part in 'The Spellbinder.' Would telegraph him at once, did so, and fixed up a contract."

BIG COONS NEXT. MCAREY SETS DATE.

Jack Johnson and "Denver Ed" Martin will do battle in Hazard's pavilion the night of Tuesday, October 18. Theirs will be the next fight after the McCoy-Sullivan affair of this week. Billy Roche of Oxnard has taken hold of Martin and means to give the big fellow a chance to verify his vaunted superiority over Johnson. Martin couldn't bear leaving town before the McCoy-Sullivan business, so Roche conceded him the pleasure of seeing the mill. About the middle of the week "Denver Ed" will go to Oxnard for work in the private gymnasium which Roche has fitted up there. Johnson will probably see the fun Tuesday, as he is one of Sullivan's training staff. Should he be unable, he will come south later in the week after the McCoy-Sullivan business. Their business Friday night. Big Jack will be in good shape when he arrives. He is one man in whose case the problem of condition never figures. Johnson is always fit when he crawls through the ropes.

Martin means to train his hardest for this coming fight. He realizes that a defeat of Johnson would make his fortune, and if faithful work will do anything for a man, that much Roche will see Martin has.

Martin avers, and not without reason, that in only one round did Johnson have the best of him in their previous meeting. On that argument and upon his firm intention to get into the pink of condition, the ebony giant bases his belief that he can beat Black Jack, and regain his title of colored heavyweight champion.

There will be many Misourians.

Close followers of the boxing game are inclined to fancy Gans's chances against Walcott in their coming meeting this week before Alec Greggains's club.

The general opinion is that Walcott has gone back, and many doubt if he could defeat Gans his best day. The lightweight champion is wonderful little fighter; he is in fact a perfect punching machine, and if his reputation for honesty were as clean as his record for defeats there would be no house in San Francisco big enough to hold the crowd.

As it is, with two such shady performers booked as this pair the sporting world is "leary," and it is doubtful if most ringsters would bet counterfeited money on the fight. Whether there is anything doing or not is unknown here; if there is, no tangible evidence of it has leaked out. The public inference is that when such a pair as Walcott and Gans get together they mean to do business. It may be wrong in most cases, but the fighters themselves are the architects of their reputations. The public punishment by ever doubting them may have once been caught in the act.

The most hopeful sign about the fight is that Gans is matched to fight Britt, and could hardly afford to do any dirt were he so minded. As for the other sable-skinned beauty, he is all in, and probably would have no compunctions about attempting anything which he could engineer successfully.

Some scattering betting on the Montana Kid-Johnny Murray fight has made its appearance at 10 to 7 in the Kid's favor. Murray is bigger and stronger than he was in his last fight, and will not be beaten so easily, though the Kid's right hook looks like money eventually.

GOPHERS LIGHT.
MINNESOTA FOOTBALL. The University of Minnesota football team this season is light compared to some that have gone before it, notably the "Giants of the North," which represented Minnesota in 1900. Nearly all the last year's team graduated. The freshmen number some giants, but the average weight is low.

Michigan has practically no chance to make the team. Ralph Rose, the giant California shot-putter, has not attained a place yet, and it is not thought he will.

MICHIGAN AT EAST.
PLAYS COLUMBIA AT HOME. Michigan University's football eleven, champions of the West, is to play in New York with Columbia on Thanksgiving Day at American League Park. It will be the first time in the history of college football for a Western eleven of consequence to play in New York. The game was arranged by William Raymond Morley, Columbia's coach. It was only after considerable time spent in discussing eligibility rules that Michigan could be induced to waive the points of difference in the make-up of the regulations.

The rules at the Western college permit any holder of a degree from any other institution to play football or any other game without being a year in residence. Columbia, like all other Eastern colleges, has a rule which requires a man from another college to be a student in regular standing for a school year before playing in an intercollegiate match.

The manner in which the disagreement over this point, which retarded negotiations for some time, was obviated has not been made public.

brief, the draft, which is a big scheme to steal two players from each Coast League team for only $100,000, is bearing hard on the magnates for it disaffects the fans and prevents the states from getting the real value of the players that are drafted. Interesting Work of Local Y. W. C. A. Classes.

Games New Here Attracting Much Attention.

Latest Apparatus Like That Used in the East.

The day has long gone by when deli- cious and frailness of physique were re- garded as desirable attributes of wom- en, and the outward expression of these qualities. Since that benighted day, there has been an interval of progress too far in the opposite di- rection, and the aggressive masculine spirit worked only to acquire an abnor- mal muscle which destroys the round curves and was detrimental to the vital organs of the body.

Today has found the golden mean, the true interpretation of what phys- ical training is really intended to ac- complish, and the girl of all-round development reaps the sure re- ward of her physical work in added endurance in the battle of life. She is girls of the Y.W.C.A. classes are look- ing forward with great pleasure to be- ginning this ideal indoor affair, which is full of life and action but in which there is less running, and less rough and tumble than in basketball.

There are two courts used in center- ball, and there is a center in each court, from which fact the game takes its name. In the four corners of the courts are the stationary players, with a guard for each player. The rush- ers, who generally number two for each side, are placed on each side of the line which divides the two courts. A whistle is blown, the ball is tossed, and the center who will try to throw it to one of the corner play- ers of the opposite court, but the guards are there to prevent it if pos- sible. If a corner player catches the ball, she immediately throws it to the center on her side, and if the center catches it that is a goal, and counts one.

The two sides in this game gener- ally wear distinguishing colors or one side dons bright waist scarfs, and the other side goes without. Twenty girls take part in centerball but nearly any number can be employed and there- in is one of its greatest attractions. More rushers can be added and more circles on each side and nearly any number of girls can take part in this coming game.

ANOTHER NEW GAME. In the new game of circleball as played in the Y.W.C.A. gymnasium, the players are ranged in a circle, and the fun is fast and furious for as the ball is thrown from side to side, the player in the center leaps and bounds to catch it as it flies, and if she does succeed, the girl who threw the ball must take her place in the center. Circleball is just a jolly continuous per- formance without points, or goals, or counting, but it counts when it comes to spontaneous exercise, and development, without the conscious effort of stated movements.

Games are increasing in popularity among the teachers of athletics in gen- eral just for the very reason that the effort is unconscious and therefore beneficial to an unusual degree. The trend at present is to unconscious breathing, too, instead of the labored efforts that are generally so unprof- itable. Instead of giving breathing ex- ercises, Miss Berryman gives to her pupils the motions that will compel deep breathing. For instance the new barbell requires motions that one could not accomplish without plenty of breathing. A few cents' worth is not enough, five cents' worth will be re- quired for the barbell movements.

NEW APPARATUS. The barbell are part of the brand- new apparatus that has just arrived at the association gym, where nearly all the equipment is of the lighter variety, the association not favoring heavy ap- paratus for women and girls who seek an all-round development. The bar- bells are a combination of the wand and the dumbbell, and they afford long, rhythmic and sustained motions, which make for poise and grace, and con- stitute an advanced grade of work. All of the association exercises are given with music and the instructor is very particular as to the quality of the music, for the rhythm is a training for the ear and the esthetic sense, as well, and in athletics all fac- ulties are concerned.

The grace hoops are also new and the exercise for them are mainly for poise which is so valuable, affecting the mental as well as the merely phys- ical, and the grace hoop movements are very beautiful to watch, calling for quick, light and graceful work.

To prove the greatest helpfulness to the classes that come to the associa- tion for instruction, there is first a physical examination for each girl and then personal history is considered, and that most nearly meets her need, or if an unusual case, she is given in- dividual work for the correction of some defect in an early stage. The gymnasium had not a few straight backs to its credit last year, backs that were growing woefully crooked, and a number of girls increased the chest measurements by a full inch, taking only one lesson a week, and others increased the lung capacity by twenty-five or thirty cubic inches.

Much attention is now paid to cor- rect standing, sitting and walking. Walking seems to be a lost art among girls; the association has organized walking clubs to tour the hills and nearby cañons during the coming fall season. Business girls who cannot take an hour or so off for this healthful form of exercise, are advised to get off joblock from their destination when riding home on the street car when the day's work is done. The second evening she can alight two blocks from home and then she will increase the distance almost unconsciously. In- stead of waiting till evening, the business girl can do the same thing, with a few spare moments in the morning, and get off and walk to her office, arriving there in a healthful glow and ready for earnest work.

Fencing, that most difficult and fac-inating of arts, is like the violin, it is the study of a lifetime, but nothing is of more value to women as well as men. The lightning-like de- cision required, the quickness of eye, hand and brain, the alert spontaneity, all go to make this ancient and hon- orable accomplishment a desirable one, for a girl who has the time to devote to acquiring a proficiency in it.

Besides the new departures in phys- ical work, the association has pre- served the useful dumbbells, wands and all the desirable movements, best- starting tennis and boating clubs that give these busy girls and young women the benefit of the great outdoors as a theater for their work.

Has Them Buffaloed. Champion Jim Jeffries' challenge to fight any three heavyweights the world ten rounds each and all on the same night brought no satisfactory replies from the old timers, nor from the young crop of big fellows except "Goody" Ferguson's bluff, writes "Goody" Siler of referee fame. Ex-Champions Jim Corbett and Bob Fitzsimmons looked upon the champion's bold proposition as an insult to their respective fighting abilities and talked, just talked, some of asking Jeffries to make good with either one of them. Single handed, as it were.

Fitz bewailed the poor condition of his fighting tools, while Corbett pointed to his twenty-three-round fight with Jeff as proof positive he could go quite a distance with the big fellow by fight- ing on the defensive. However, they would not baffle their reputations as Al fighters to make two of the three men to meet the champion. Tom Sharkey, whose fighting days are over and who could not be drawn into a ring with Jeffries with a yoke of oxen, secured a little advertising out of the challenge by stating he would be pleased to exchange wallopas with Jeff provided the money would be cut to go four ways, and also, he forgot to state, that the champion would agree not to hit him in the ribs.

ing up to town. A month ago six-inch mackerel were the rule; now many of nine inches are being taken, with oc- casional bigger ones. It remains a mystery to the local fish culturists con- sidering whether these are the same schools of mackerel attained a greater growth, or different schools of larger- sized fish. The mackerel grows very fast when abundantly supplied with food, as all the local fish seem to be this year, from an examination of their white, fat-laden flesh. Whether mackerel grows at the rate of an-inch a month is doubtful, though perhaps not impossible, it being a well under- stood fact among fish culturists that the growth of fish is almost entirely de- pendent upon the plentifulness of their food supply. Be that as it may, the mackerel fishing for numbers is as good now as it ever was, and hundreds of sea anglers rejoice at the fact.

More big jack smelt are coming in. Several huge ones were caught by R. F. Van Cleave and party in San Pedro Harbor last Sunday, and seine cords are being unearched from tackle boxes for the sport. The large smelt stay farther away from the wharves than do the mackerel, and casting is gen- erally resorted to after them.

Corbina are now of better average size than earlier in the month, and the September run of these gamy and toothsome fish seems at last to be on in force. Some good ones were taken at all the principal surf-fishing resorts last week. Seaside Park, near Long Beach, is becoming a favorite place with surf casters, some very respectably-stated specimens being on the feed there. Huntington Beach regularly are making catches of corbina and big yellowfins during the week, and will be liberally patronized today, notwithstanding the uncertainties of car service and the nuisance of being transferred onto full north-bound cars at Willow Junction. Huntington Beach regulars are making a good complaint about this, and feel that they are very hard used in being compelled to pay 50 cents fare and then stand up half the way home after a hard day's fishing. No good reason is given why the loaded cars are not sent right through without change.

It is high time for the annual fall croaker run to begin, but only desul- tory catches have been made thus far this month.

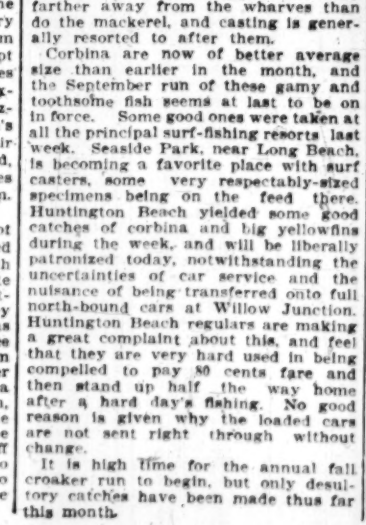

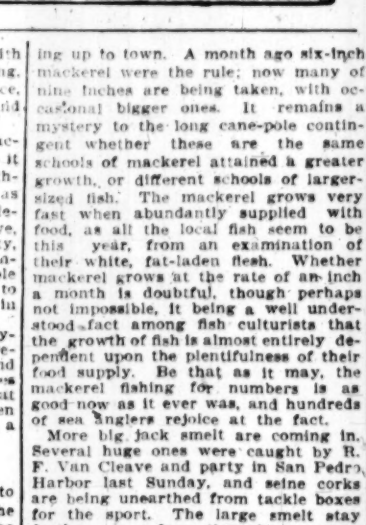

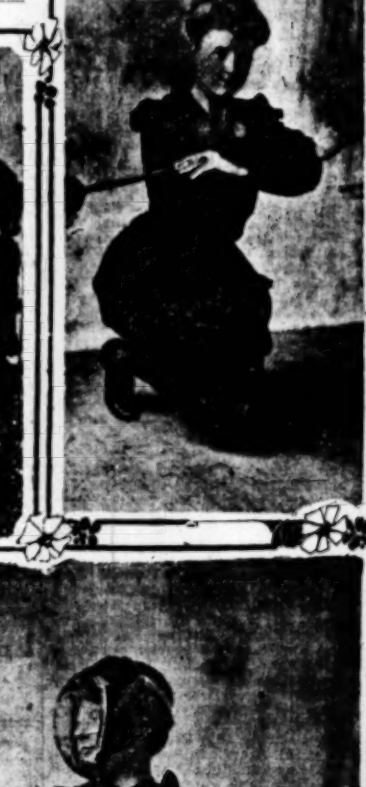

BAD WEATHER HURTS BITING.

SOME GOOD CATCHES ARE TO BE HAD ALONGSHORE.

No Cessation Reported in the Mack- erel Run and the Fish are Becoming Larger—The Game Outside—Cor- bina and Yellowfins Again Doing Land Office Business.

Unsettled weather the latter part of the week kept quite a few fishermen away from the beaches and served to rather disarrange the sport of those who took a chance and went regard- less of threatening rain. Nevertheless, some very respectable catches of cor- bina, yellowfins, mackerel and sea trout were made at nearly all of the resorts. Those who went outside had some good sport, though the prevalence of high fog and dark weather inter- fered materially with the biting at times. Bright, sunny days, with a lively dance on the water are the con- ditions experienced trawlers most fancy.

As the fall season draws on the mackerel are running of greater size, and occasional corneds are now cou-

I have been treated by Dr. Schiffman for years. I have tried all the different medi- cines, and can say unhesitatingly no dentist or physician has ever operated with such success or skill. In extracting my teeth he did it without any pain to me. It is a great pleasure to me to recommend him and his method of treatment.

MILLO M. POTTER
Prop. Van Nuys Hotel and Hotel Potter, Santa Barbara.

Ten years ago a reputable dentist of Va. told me that a certain molar tooth could not be satisfactorily saved, and that it would probably not be of service for one year. It was not only saved but for ten years, as Dr. Schiffman saved and crown- ed it, and comparatively speaking with- out pain. I state this gratis.

OWEN M. ANDREWS

On account of some unfortunate ex- perience I had in the extraction of my teeth I became a great coward in this respect. Today Dr. Schiffman extracted one of my very refractory teeth without causing me one particle of pain. D. E. TRANK, Judge Superior Court, Los Angeles.

Several years ago Dr. Schiffman did some crown work for me which has proved entirely satisfactory. The work was done faithfully and with great skill. It gives me great pleasure to recom- mend him.

IRVING R. SMITH, L. A. Times.

Dr. Schiffman has done a large amount of bridge and plate work for me, which was done in a very satisfactory manner. A. J. BRADISH, Chief of L. A. Detectives.

VERY BEST

Flexible Rubber Dental Plates Have many advantages over the old thick cumbersome, ordinary rubber plates and even over gold plates, being much lighter and skinner. These plates are flexible, only a trifle thicker than heavy writing paper. Fit closer and adhere better to the roof of the mouth. Particles of food and small seeds cannot get under them. They will last longer, are stronger than any others and will not break as they will give first, being flexible. Dr. Schiffman's own process, and made only by us.

Our Guarantee is Good. We refer you to the Merchant's National Bank as to our reliability and reputa- bility. No boys or students to experiment on you. With us you are not experimenting. We have stood a 15-years' test in Los An- geles.
